What is a "CSA"?

CSA stands for Community Supported Agriculture. A CSA is a way for the community to create a relationship with a farm and to receive a weekly box of produce. It enables the community to make a long-term commitment to a farm.

How It Works

Participants pick-up a box of healthy, organically grown produce each week. Members choose:

- Wednesday or Saturday for their set pick-up day
- Full share or half share

Fees and Payment Info

- Fee Full Share = $850 for 29 boxes
- Fee Half Share= $460 for 14 boxes (one full box every other week). Specific dates will be in your welcome letter.
- Paying in full or making the first payment reserves your spot with application

 (at CTF) Final – Sat. Nov. 17

WEDNESDAY: First – Wed. May 9

Participation Terms & Conditions

- The 29-week CSA season is May 5 through November 20.

- The box will be filled with 8 to 12 different crops, according to availability.
- FOOD Boxes are ready for pick-up: Saturdays from 10am to 1pm at Crabtree Farms, or Wednesdays from 4pm to 6pm at the Main Street Farmers’ Market
- If your box is not picked up at the scheduled time, it will be redistributed.
- Participants enjoy the bounty and the risks of the farming season. We do our best to ensure good boxes, choosing the items in each weekly box carefully. Please note, however, that all produce, flowers, and co-op items are subject to availability, may vary according to climate factors, and are not guaranteed.

ADOPT-A-BOX Program

Share the harvest with those who might not have access to fresh healthy food. Through this program, produce will be donated weekly to partners in the community for direct food assistance. By donating funds to the Adopt-A-Box Program, you can be assured that 100% of your donation will provide food to locals in need.
