

CRABTREE FARMS

Writing Internship

Crabtree Farms is a non-profit urban farm which sustainably grows delicious produce, and provides educational opportunities for children and adults to learn and celebrate Chattanooga's local food culture. In addition, Crabtree is a hub for promoting and supporting local farms and the farm to table movement.

The writing intern will play a key role in engaging the Chattanooga community by telling the stories of individuals and organizations involved in the farm to table movement, sharing advice and interesting tidbits, and providing inspiration through recipes.

During the 10 hour per week internship, the writing intern will be involved in the following the following activities:

- Researching and writing blog posts
- Writing articles for the Crabtree Farms newsletter
- Writing press releases

This internship is well suited for an individual who is passionate about the local food movement and motivated to educate and inform our community about a large range of local food activities.

The successful candidate will be paid in a weekly vegetable basket.

Internship Time Line and Commitment:

The Writing Internship is 10 hours per week with a minimum 3-month commitment. Interns will have an option to extend their internship.
